

Blackbaud Learning Management System™

The Forward-Thinking LMS

Leap ahead in educational technology with Blackbaud Learning Management System. Give teachers the tools to quickly submit attendance and post homework assignments from their phones; coaches the ability to add announcements and enter game highlights; and advisors a forum to communicate. The benefits include parents engaging with all phases of their child's education and faculty members spending more time on learning outcomes.

Key Features

- Course Topic pages are designed to engage students
- Bulletin Boards alert students to course reminders and announcements
- Assignment Center shows an individual student's workload
- Coursework can be uploaded and turned in from mobile devices
- Grade Book gives teachers the ability to add comments
- Rubrics and traditional forms of assessment are supported
- Athletic, advising, activity, dorm, and community pages streamline communication among group members
- System integrates with Google Drive™ and Turnitin®
- Core functionality of Blackbaud's education management portfolio is included with the subscription, adding features such as filterable calendars, internal messaging, SKY Reporting™, and resource board portals

Benefits to Your School

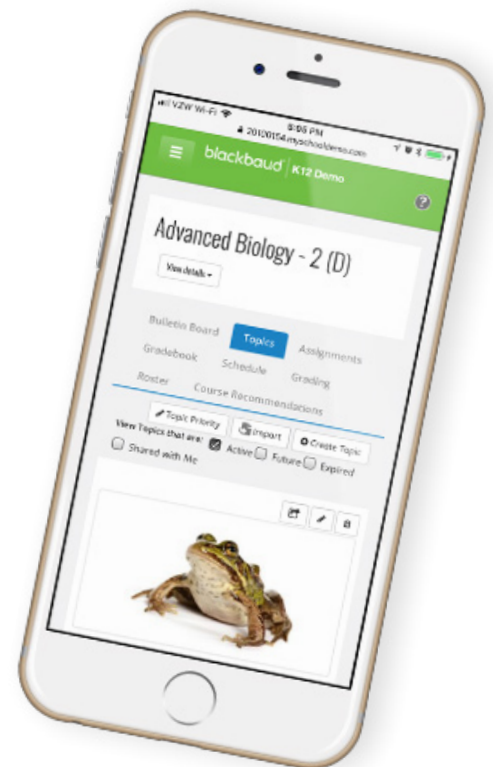

Empower education.

- Course Topic pages provide a hub for sharing educational resources
 - ✓ Drag and drop an unlimited amount of photos, videos, and audio files
 - ✓ Embed third-party content and LTI-compliant EdTech learning tools
- Graded discussion threads encourage class participation
- Annotated assignments and grade comments help students understand key concepts
- Students (as well as parents and advisors) are able to track homework commitments in the Assignment Center
- Online assignment submissions with mobile access and Google Drive and Turnitin integrations provide flexibility for how, where, and when homework is completed
- Assessments support photo and video files and can be timed, automatically graded, and synced with the Grade Book
- Rubrics offer a meaningful form of assessment to help students understand the objective of an assignment

Foster communication.

Share grades and comments with parents and advisors through the visual Grade Book.

- Course, team, and activity rosters provide teachers, coaches, advisors, and activity leaders with a quick way to message students, parents, or the entire group
- Bulletin Boards are a central hub of information—like announcements, news, events, forms, links, and multimedia—for courses, teams, advising groups, dorms, and activities
- Athletic team pages support game and practice schedules, and coaches can enter scores and highlights
- Advisory and Dorm groups give advisors, students, and parents a forum to collaborate on student performance and behavior
- Community groups connect student club and activity members, as well as parent organizations

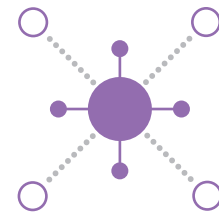

- The filterable calendar is personalized to each student, parent, and teacher by aggregating all events from their courses and activities

Save faculty time.

Teachers can:

- Simultaneously add assignments, discussions, and assessments to multiple course sections with unique publish and due dates for each
- Import existing course information, such as topics and assignments, from previous sections
- Avoid overscheduling assignments and assessments by viewing each student's workload for all courses
- Set objective questions in assessments to automatically grade
- Share rubrics with other teachers in the Rubric Bank
- Bulk-add grades with auto-saving in the Grade Book
- Access all features on a laptop, tablet, or phone

YOUR WHOLE SCHOOL, CONNECTED

How can Blackbaud Learning Management System help connect your whole school?

- Constituents use the same login credentials originally created for enrollment applications to view homework assignments
- Course information flows into the Blackbaud Student Information System™ for scheduling and grading
- Athletic schedules and game updates display on the public website
- Events from all courses, teams, and activities appear together on personalized calendars

This is your whole school connected with Blackbaud.
