In a world that demands
for immediacy and empathy
between brands and consumers,
building long term relationships
become a must.

Having the right app for sellers
that gather data automatically with every interaction from clients to automate moments
is the key to success.

But first...

do these challenges sound familiar?

- Making your sales force to use your business' CRM - Ecommerce - POS - social media and other digital points of contact requires a big effort and investment?
- Automating operative processes demands a high quality development team?
- Attending many clients at the same time turns into less effective answers?
- Really understanding your audience in order to engage with them through AI answers and insight seems impossible?

IMAGINE SOLVING ALL THESE CHALLENGES
BY USING A SINGLE
AI PLATFORM CONNECTED TO ALL YOUR BUSINESS' ECOSYSTEM

This is how Keybe do it >

CHAT

Your sales and assistance points of contact are connected in a single web and mobile app. Your team attends WhatsApp Business, Facebook, Instagram and Web conversations without looking in different tabs saving more than 20% of their time in the first month.

CONNECT

Save, protect and admin all your contacts' information once they get in touch with your brand. Keybe's CRM is connected to Chats and Outbound features looking forward to simplifying your business communication processes.

AUTOMATE

Automate interactions and actions with artificial intelligence to improve sales, sending the right message at the right moment to the right user.

SEGMENT

Segment automatically your audience based on behaviors and preferences, building long term relations and adding value to the economy. Keybe groups people with similar tastes and shopping preferences automatically.

Contact these segments at the right time with the most attractive messages using the most effective communication channels such as: WhatsApp Business, Email and SMS.

INTEGRATE

Connect your business' e-commerce, ERP and POS unifying the most valuable cloud information in a single tab and automating repetitive tasks like: purchase confirmation messages, contacts sync or appointment update.

MY KEYBE

Create your own microsite grouping all your important URLs and products/services in a single tab.

BOOST SALES

The knowledge you have about your clients is the most important. As they say, data is the new gold. Keybe's AI brain brings your sales-forces the info they need at the exact moment.

Not only info, but triggers such as: these people's birthday is this week, congratulate them or send this message to this group of people that is mad at you.
