

AI that helps humans deliver better service

Waillo's AI chat understands what visitors mean in their own words and gets them to the right service faster, reducing errors and front desk interruptions.

Plain language intake

Visitors describe what they need in their own words and are routed to the right service, queue, or appointment.

Fewer status questions

Waillo Chat answers common questions like documents, hours, and wait times, reducing front desk interruptions.

Faster time to help

Clear routing shortens delays and gets people to the right human sooner.

Your customers have questions. Waillo has answers.

- I need to add or drop a class.
- I sprained my ankle.
- How long does this visit usually take?
